PRADHAN MANTRI JAN-DHAN YOJANA (PMJDY) - FINANCIAL INCLUSION MISSION

SUPPLEMENTARY REFERENCE - Compiled from Official Government Portals (November 2026)

Department of Financial Services, Ministry of Finance, Government of India | Level: Central | Category: Banking & Financial Inclusion

Official Portal: https://pmjdy.gov.in

1. Overview & Core Pillars

PMJDY is the National Mission for Financial Inclusion aimed at ensuring universal access to banking services with at least one basic banking account for every unbanked adult. It guarantees zero minimum balance requirements, free debit card, and built-in insurance protections.

2. Key Financial Benefits

- Zero Balance Account: No requirement of maintaining minimum balance; zero penalty fees.
- Free RuPay Debit Card with built-in Accidental Insurance Cover of Rs 2,00,000 (for accounts opened after August 28, 2018).
- Overdraft (OD) Facility: Up to Rs 10,000 available to one account per household (preferably female head) after 6 months of satisfactory account operation; no conditions for OD up to Rs 2,000.
- Direct Benefit Transfer (DBT): Direct crediting of subsidies from PM-KISAN, PMAY, MGNREGA, and LPG subsidy into account without leakage.
- Life Insurance cover of Rs 30,000 payable upon death of beneficiary (for accounts opened during initial phase).

3. Eligibility Criteria

- Any Indian citizen aged 10 years and above.
- Minors above 10 years can operate accounts independently or with legal guardian.
- Any individual who does not have an existing basic savings bank deposit account (BSBDA) at any bank.

4. Required Documents Checklist

1. Aadhaar Card (sufficient standalone document for identity and address).
2. If Aadhaar is not available: Voter ID, Driving Licence, PAN Card, Passport, or NREGA Job Card.
3. If officially valid documents (OVD) are not available: Small Account can be opened with self-attested photograph and signature/thumb impression (valid for 12 months).
4. Two passport-size photographs.

5. Account Opening Steps

Step 1: Visit any commercial bank branch, regional rural bank, or Bank Mitra / Business Correspondent (BC) kiosk.
Step 2: Collect PMJDY Account Opening Form (available in Hindi, English, and regional languages).
Step 3: Fill personal details, nominee details, and submit along with Aadhaar photocopy.
Step 4: Bank Mitra registers biometric thumbprint and opens account instantly.
Step 5: Account passbook and personalized RuPay Debit Card are issued free of charge.